The Open Society Foundations Fellowship in Nonprofit Law is awarded yearly to one graduate of an accredited U.S. law school to pursue legal work in the public sector for one year at the Open Society Foundations in New York City. Fellows are selected for their scholarship, leadership, and commitment to practicing in the field of nonprofit law.

Attached are the materials necessary to complete a Fellowship application. All application materials are due on Monday, July 12, 2021. Finalists will be notified and interviews will be conducted in July 2021.

A completed application consists of the following items:

- Fellowship Application
- Official Law School Transcript, sent directly from law school’s registrar
- Resume
- Two Letters of Recommendation sent directly to ncpl.info@nyu.edu from any:
  - Law School Professor
  - Former or Current Employer

At least one reference should be from a Law School Professor.

Send applications to ncpl.info@nyu.edu.
